

Meekness

Scripture reading: Exodus 12:1-14

How will you react when the student next to you accidentally stamps over you? How will you react when you are travelling in a bus and a person falls over you without balance? Most of us, we immediately try to yell at them and fight with them. When people in our neighborhood fight, if we could just dig into the matter and find the cause, mostly the cause is very silly. The problem would've been solved if just any one of them would've been quite. In the past, just the elders used to face these problems, but nowadays even a school going child has such issues.

God chose Moses to be a leader for the Israelites. He also appointed Aaron as the co-worker for Moses. Miriam was the sister of Moses. When Moses was found in the river Nile by the daughter of Pharaoh, it was Miriam who brought the mother of Moses to nurse him. But now Aaron and Miriam stood against Moses. They said, "Has the Lord indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us as well?" Moses never spoke a word and was quite.

God said all the there to come to the tent of meeting and the Lord spoke to them saying, "Even with a prophet, I would communicate by visions and dreams; but that is not how I communicate with my servant Moses. He is completely at home in my house! With him I speak face-to-face! And he shall see the very form of God! Why then were you not afraid to criticize him?" God was angry against Aaron and Miriam.

God made a strong wind blow and Miriam was struck with Leprosy. Immediately Moses prayed for her and the lord healed her. Will your friends and family testify of you saying that you are meek, good and truthful? If you have such testimony, God will fight for you. What will you do when people come against you?

Questions:

- 1) What did God testify about Moses?
- 2) What was the result of Aaron and Miriam rising against Moses?
- 3) What will your friends and your family testify of you?
