Scripture Reading: Genesis 45:4-15

The God we worship will turn that which is evil for our good

When Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, they realized that God has fulfilled the dream that he gave Joseph and now he was in authority over them. They were all fearful of what Joseph might do to them. But Joseph understanding their hearts said unto them that it was God who was in control of all that happened. God had planned all of this to protect the family from the famine that was to come. He sent them to immediately bring along the entire family of Jacob from the land of Canaan. Joseph promised to feed them all.

Question:

Can God turn out the evil for goodness even in our lives?

Answer:

Surely God can do it because He is an almighty God. But we can receive that goodness only when we truly love God. Are you asking, "Why is it so?"

If Joseph didn"t love God:

1) He would have murmured in the pit and would"ve been destroyed there.

2) He would have sinned with the wife of Potiphar and therefore would"ve been defeated by sin.

3) He would've been destroyed in the prison with bitterness and anger.

It was the love he had for God that protected him and exalted him in authority over the land of Egypt. The love we have for God will not just lead us into holiness but also into abundant blessings.

"And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose". Romans 8:28

Prayer

Loving father you turn out that which is evil for our good. Thank you for doing it in our life lord. Amen
