

Scripture Reading: Genesis 28:10-15

"I Am With You and Will Watch over You Wherever You Go"

Let us begin the meditations for the month of February with the above mentioned promise. Before Jacob could be fascinated by the blessings he had received because of his mother's love and by deceiving his father, the anger of his outraged brother forced him to leave home and run for his life. Being depressed by what had happened to him and the thoughts of his uncertain future, Jacob lay down and rested by the borders of the land of Canaan. The almighty God who knew the heart of Jacob visited him in a dream. God said, "I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Gen 28:15.

"I desired to worship God. I obeyed the words of my mother. I received not the possessions of my father but his blessings. But how could this happen to me? Why are they pursuing after me? Who will stand by my side...?" These were the lamentations of Jacob and it could be yours too. If you are in a similar situation like Jacob, these words are for you, "God will be with you and watch over you wherever you go and will make you return to the blessed place you were in". Just as God broke, molded and exalted Jacob, He will mould you and exalt you. Continue to meditate and praise God with faith.

"I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Genesis 28:15

Prayer:

Dear father, you're full of love and mercy. I thank You for the promise word for this month. Be with me and protect me lord eternally. Amen
