Moses in the Palace

Bible reading: Exodus 2:1-15

When baby Moses came back home again, Moses parents and sister were filled with great Joy and delight. But Later, when the boy was older, his mother had to bring him back to the palace; this filled their heart with grief. That night they prayed and thanked Jehovah God with tears as a family. During the days when Moses was with his mother, she taught him about the true and living God Jehovah and that he should worship him alone and lead a holy life. When the boy was older, his mother brought him back to Pharaoh's daughter in the palace. There Moses learned all sorts of skills and lived as a prince. There were many servants to serve him. Many years later, when Moses had grown up, during his visit, he saw an Egyptian beating one of his fellow Hebrews. In anger Moses killed the Egyptian and hid the body in the sand. The next day, he saw two Hebrew men fighting. "Why are you beating up your friend?" Moses said to the one who had started the fight. The man replied, "Are you going to kill me as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?" When Pharaoh heard, what had happened, he tried to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh leaving Egypt.

Are you thinking, oh! Did such a thing happen to Moses? What Moses did, was it right or wrong? Yes, it is wrong. He should have not been angry and should have not killed because, what he did was not pleasing to God. As a punishment, he had to flee from Egypt. Moses who lived as a prince in the palace, how was he so concerned about the Hebrews. Moses grew and lived with the realization that he also was a Hebrew. His mother brought him up in that state. Children, even you should grow with a conscious that you are a child of Jesus and lead a Holy life. You should not be in a hurry like Moses. You should not be angry but should live a serene life.

Human anger does not produce the righteousness God desires. James 1:20

Prayer

Heavenly Father, help us to live as obedient children and lead a holy life. Help us also to live as soft natured children. Amen

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.
