"Yet I am with you" says the Lord God almighty.

Scripture reading: Haggai 2nd chapter

we have seen yesterday about the people of God and their attitude during the resistance by enemies and situation. They easily forgotten the covenant between God and them and love they received from God and their calling and anointing. That is why they stopped reconstructing the temple and the other works of the city. There were two leaders to lead the people on those days in Jerusalem. One is Zerubbabel the governor and Joshua the priest. Both of them were so down in their spirit by seeing the attitude of the people. So God spoke to them through Haggai in his 2nd chapter that "even though the people are put off and went away from my plan, I did not leave you because I made covenant with you when I brought you out of Egypt. I still remember that and will lead you because I am faithful." In these days only many prophets God raised to encourage and motivate the people and their leaders. God so concern about their relationship with HIM than the people of Judah. God was also very much interested in rebuilding the temple.

Hello sweet hearts, in this 2nd chapter of Haggai, or God reveals something very important to HIS people.

1. Even though we go astray because of various reasons and situations, our God is with us because HE loves us so much. Actually HE loves us more than anybody and more than we love HIM.
 2. Even though we are not faithful and truthful in the covenant between God and us, HE is always and very much faithful and truthful in the covenant.
 3. Actually we are the temple of God today and our heart is place where God wants to live and make sanctuary. So HE is more interested in reforming and rebuilding the temple than us. So HE will provide all the needs and protects from enemies.
- You who is reading this remember you need not do anything but only live HIM with ask of your heart, soul, mind and strength. Come on let us pray.

Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,' says the LORD; 'and be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all you people of the land,' says the LORD, 'and work; for I am with you,' says the LORD of hosts. Haggai 2:4

Prayer

Most heavenly Father,

We know you are great and awesome not only in your holiness but also faithfulness and truthfulness. Help me to be truthful, faithful and fruitful. In Jesus most holy name I pray. Amen.
