

Doing Good

Scripture reading: Proverbs 3:27, 28; Galatians 8:9&10

What are the good deeds (helps) that you're able to do? When I was a kid, my parents had thought me that when I travel in a bus, I should give up my seat if there were any aged people standing. Till today I have that habit. Even my kids do the same.

But these days I see kids ignoring aged people, sick people who cannot stand because of weakness, even when they are requested for a seat. There are so many ways in which you can help others. You can help the blind to cross the road. You can help the poor kids who study with you. If you are a student who excels in mathematics, you can help the students who are weak in it. In whichever subject you are good at, you can help others who are weak in it.

You can save your pocket money that parents give and buy good gifts to those kids who have lost their parents. You can help by contributing for their education. You can help your parents. All of these are that which is possible to you. You will be exalted when you do good.

To do that which is good is pleasing in the sight of God. Apostle Paul says, always seek to do good. When you do not do the good that which has to be done, it is sin. You should not limit yourself to do good those who are good, but rather should extend your goodness even to those who are evil. In doing so, great will be our reward in heaven.

From this day forth, do good to all extent and in all manner possible. There is nothing greater than that.

Questions:

1. Who will be pleased when we do that which is good?
2. What will be counted as sin?
3. To whom should we do good?
