Praise the Lord

Scripture Reading: Psalms Chapter 150

Praise the Lord! Praise God in His sanctuary; Praise Him in His mighty firmament! Praise Him for His mighty acts; Praise Him according to His excellent greatness! Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise Him with the lute and harp! Praise Him with the tumbrel and dance; Praise Him with stringed instruments and flutes! Praise Him with loud cymbals; Praise Him with clashing cymbals! Let everything that has breath praise the Lord. Praise the Lord!

Loving children, do you like to clap your hands in Sunday worship and praise the Lord? Not just clapping, we have to praise and worship our Jesus with dancing. David who wrote these psalms did likewise. God said that David was a man after His own heart. Dear children, there are many prerequisites to become a man after God's own heart. The primary of it is holiness, living a life that pleases God and having concern for other, etc. A person who wants to please God will be very much cautious of praising God. When we dance and sing praises, it should not just be an external activity. It should be an external expression of the love that flows the inner most depths of our heart counting on the goodness and blessings of God.

I will praise You, O Lord, with my whole heart; I will tell of all Your marvelous works. Psalms 9:1

Prayer

God who dwells in the midst of praises, thank You for blessing us with a perfect body. We will use this body to glorify You, dance, sing and shout praises to Your holy name. With all that is in us, we will praise You. Amen
