

If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat.

Scripture Reading: Proverbs 25:21, Romans 12:20

How would you react when a friend turns against and begins to speak bad about you? The very next day you will give up your relationship with him/her. Isn't it true? Even when you see him/her afar, you would move out to some other place. You will even tell your other friends not to speak to him/her.

But the bible says that we have to love our enemies. Rani came home crying and said to her mother, "Mom, even today Rosy fought with me". Mom said, "Do not cry. She will soon become your friend. Just do as I say".

The next morning mom gave a pen to Rani and said her to give it as a gift to Rosy. Rani went to school. As usual, Rosy tried pulling Rani's hair just to irritate her, but Rani quietly went to her seat.

That evening there was no fight between the two. Rani took out the pen and gave it to Rosy and said, "this is my gift to you". Rosy asked Rani if they both can play together that day. Rani was astonished at the change and said a yes. They both were good friends from that day forth.

God expects you to forgive those who intend evil against you and also help them in times of trouble.

Questions:

1. Who is your enemy?
2. What does the bible says about handling our enemies?
3. What does God expect from you?